

Please do not change our do not call list! I love the freedom that it has given me and my family. I also talked an elderly neighbor into signing up because he would get confused by telemarketers trying to sell him things! It has saved him from being taken advantage of again.